Georgia Amateur Boxing Association celebrating Olympic Day with free meet 'n' greet fitness festival

Event one of 700+ nationwide events celebrating the birth of the modern Olympic Games

STOCKBRIDGE, Georgia – The spirit of the Olympic Movement will roll into Stockbridge as the Georgia Amateur Boxing Association (GABA), a 501(c)3 non-profit organization affiliated with USA Boxing, Inc., hosts its second community fitness meet-and-greet in celebration of Olympic Day.

GABA's celebration is free to attend and will take place from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on June 22 at the J.P. Moseley Recreation Center. Olympian Romallis Ellis will kick off the event by sharing stories of his Olympic Games' experience; Olympic hopeful and National Golden Gloves finalist Maliek Montgomery of Macon will share about his path to Olympic gold. The Olympic Day Mayoral Proclamation presented on behalf of Stockbridge Mayor Mark Alarcon by Cultural & Leisure Services Manager Miranda Allen, the meet 'n' greet with photo opportunities, entertainment and a brief snack will follow Ellis' presentation.

While there will be no actual boxing competition, both boxers will showcase their skills by leading a community-involved fitness session alongside athletes of the Paul Murphy Boxing Club of Doraville. Also sharing talents for GABA's 100% volunteer-driven celebration will be Henry County's own rising R&B sensation Da Famous Boyzz, professional conga percussionist Deshone, saxophonist "Sax Man" Sion and the world-renowned DJ Nabs.

The GABA activity is one of more than 700 events taking place nationwide between June 21 and 30. The events, designed to engage youth and promote the ideals of the Olympic movement, feature athlete appearances, family-friendly activities and interactive learning experiences. Diversity groups Anti-Prejudice Consortium and Building Understanding will be on hand to share about equality within sports.

Around the world, more than 160 countries take part in the annual celebration. Olympic Day, created in 1948 to commemorate the birth of the modern Olympic Games, focuses on the Olympic values and ideals such as fair play, perseverance, respect and sportsmanship. In the U.S., Olympic Day events range from small gatherings to large, city-wide events.

Any businesses and supporters wishing to volunteer their services or donate in-kind items can connect with the Georgia Amateur boxing Association's Henry County Olympic Day Team at 404-913-2482. All donations are tax-deductible.
